FROM THE EAST

My Brothers,

November, this year at least, is our Grand Visitation. Dinner this year will be turkey and ham. There will be no charge for dinner. Please come out to meet our Grand Staff.

Our business meeting will start at 5:30, then we will set the lodge at ease, and meet with the Grand Staff for dinner at 6:30. As soon as dinner ends, I will reopen lodge on the First Degree and we will greet the Grand Master and his staff. The Grand Master this year is Jeffrey D. Haass from

Also, remember, if you ever need to know the time and date of a meeting for anything Masonic in Delaware, go onto www.masonsindelaware.gov.

SHOWING YOUR MASONIC PRIDE

last week I was riding on Kirkwood Highway and I noticed I was riding behind a car with a Masonic Symbol. A car to my right accelerated and it too had a Masonic Symbol on it. I also have a Masonic Symbol on the back of my car, so anyone who was nearby must have thought that it was a parade of masons.

Even though we are the on Fraternal Organization, quite a few people in the world have no ideas who we are. Showing our Masonic Pride by wearing something with a Masonic symbol on it is one way to keep us current in the world and show that we are still going strong. There are many opportunities to do this including MASKS (something new, for sure), symbols for your car (available on the internet) or clothing items or jewelry. This can be a starting point for a masonic discussion which could lead to a new member, or at least someone going away with a positive attitude about masons.

If you aren't currently showing off your Masonic Pride, please start!
